

Privacy Policy

- When you place an on-line order with us, we require the following personal information: your name, shipping address, billing address, phone number and email. This information is necessary to process and ship your order. Any information that you give us is private, and we keep the information on a secure server to protect it from outside parties. We do NOT share your private information with anyone. Your payment is made via a third party vendor (i.e. Square or PayPal). We do not receive your credit card information for on-line orders.
- If you have any questions, please email us at askalice@cheshirecatclothing.com or call the shop at (802) 223-1981 and we will be delighted to help you.
